The Friends serves as a bridge between the community and the library. We love to hear your suggestions like the new birdwatching program started this year. We appreciate your participation and support in the past and hope it will continue. Please consider using the enclosed return envelope and tear off slip to send your donation. All donations are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. You will receive an acknowledgment and receipts are available on request. We're very interested in your ideas and suggestions for future programs and events. An active library serves and enriches the entire community.

Best regards,

The Friends of the Heermance Memorial Library

PS : Join us at one of our monthly meetings to learn more and contribute your ideas.
